ATLANTA CHAMBER MUSIC FESTIVAL

Code of Conduct

ACMF operates according to the following code of conduct to ensure that the rights of all individuals are protected while attending the camp and to establish the safest and best possible learning environment for all camp participants.

Expectations:
All students, parents, and staff are expected to treat one another with respect, to show equal respect to the property of others, and to behave in a way which does not endanger, intimidate, or interfere with the participation of others. Students are expected to follow the instructions given by ACMF faculty and staff.

I agree to the following, with the understanding that failure to adhere to these policies may result in disciplinary action up to and including my immediate expulsion from ACMF with no refund of fees:

1. I will not be in possession of cigarettes or any tobacco products, alcohol, non-prescribed drugs, weapons, pornographic material on campus at any time.
2. I will not use language which is intentionally offensive, sexist, or racist.
3. I will refrain from fighting, bullying, or other forms of aggressive behavior.
4. I will not leave campus boundaries without express permission from a festival director and parent or counselor supervision.
5. I will not behave in a manner which damages or vandalizes the property of others or the Emory University campus.
6. I will not behave in a manner which is potentially dangerous to myself or others.
7. I will not allow any visitors inside my dorm room; common areas are available for gatherings.
8. I will be in my residence hall by 10:00 p.m. each evening.

Discipline

A committee formed of festival directors, counselors, and faculty will address allegations of misconduct. Allegations that may be reviewed include any violation of the code of conduct; any illegal act; any act or language that may be considered threatening or abusive; and any reports from faculty of conduct unbecoming of an ACMF student (i.e. failure to attend rehearsals or performances, inappropriate behavior towards fellow students or faculty, etc.).

The committee may impose penalties up to and including expulsion without a refund. Any disciplinary action taken will be reported to the student's parents immediately. The decisions of the committee are final.
